Al in the 1850 Census. He left there and went to Texas where he owned a lot of property that he divided amongst his children when he left Texas and came back to Alabama and died. He brought back to Al with him two of his grandchildren, Sarah Angelina Smith, and Wesley Lee (Dick) Smith, they left married siblings in Texas. Both parents had died, these were both children, Angeline was 11 years old. Another Grandchild William (Bill) joined the family in Alabama.

He married Mary Ann Hisaw. Family tradition says that the Hisaw's were Cherokee Indians, three of the Pendley brothers married Hisaw Sisters.

Reuben Pendley ran a store in Harwood Texas and had another one in Luling. Sarah Angeline Smith Poe said that when he returned to Alabama he sold the store to family. In the old Poe papers I found a paper from Luling from George Hisaw where he was sending Reuben an accounting of the business. It was just a little

I.-Ninth Alabama
Cavalry Regiment

This regiment was formed near Tullahoma, in May 1863 by consolidating Malone's Twelfth and Thomason's Fourteenth battalions. The former had organized in September 1862, and served in the brigades successively of Gen'l's J. T. Morgan and J. A. Wharton, fighting at Murfreesboro. The regiment served with Wharton's brigade till December 1863, operating in the vicinity of the Army of Tennessee, and taking part, with some loss, in numerous skirmishes. Brigaded with the First, Third, Fourth, and Fifty-first Alabama cavalry, first under Gen. J. T. Morgan, afterwards under Generals Allen and Hagan, the Ninth was in the battle of Shelbyville with much loss, in the severe and bloody champaign in Tennessee with Longstreet's corps, and in many conflicts in front of the main army. During the Dalton-Atlanta campaign, the Ninth was continually at the exposed points, losing severely in a number of instances. With other portions of Wheeler's cavalry, the regiment followed Sherman eastward, and a remnant surrendered in North Carolina.

Notes for Sarah Angeline Smith:

Grannie Poe always said that there was something good you could say about everyone. The family was always trying to tease her by asking her about different people. She would say, well, he/she is a good worker, other times a good parent, etc.

They finally found the perfect person to prove her wrong. They said what about Mr (---), he was lazy, mean to his family, disliked by his neighbors, unkind to his animals, they could not think of one thing he was liked for.

The story as told by Julia Honeycutt was she paused, smiled, then said "He sure is a good whistler".

From then on the ultimate insult to anyone was "He she is a good whistler."

Granny said before her parents died that they went to town, which was miles away. That they left the smaller children in the care of the older children. They lived on the prairie while the parents were in town wolves tried to get into the house by going down the chimney. The children broke up the furniture and built a fire in the fireplace to keep the wolves out even though it was hot weather.

He was born 19 Jul 1864 in Fayette Co., and died 05 Jan 1935 in Walker, Co., buried in Old Salem Cemetary in Fayette County.

Notes for Sarah Angeline Smith:

Grannie Poe always said that there was something good you could say about everyone. The family was always trying to tease her by asking her about different people. She would say, well, he/she is a good worker, other times a good parent, etc.

They finally found the perfect person to prove her wrong. They said what about Mr (---), he was lazy, mean to his family, disliked by his neighbors, unkind to his animals, they could not think of one thing he was liked for.

From then on the ultimate insult to anyone was "He she is a good whistler."

Granny said before her parents died that they went to town, which was miles away. That they left the smaller children in the care of the older children. They lived on the prairie while the parents were in town wolves tried to get into the house by going down the chimney.

The children broke up the furniture and built a fire in the fireplace to keep the wolves out even though it was hot weather.

38. William C⁴ Smith (Edney³ Pendley, Mary Ann² Hisaw, Joel Absolom¹, Frederick^A) was born 01 May 1863 in Texas, and died in Texas. He married Lemiley J Poe, daughter of George Poe and Judy Griffin. She was born Mar, and died 07 Dec 1917.

Notes for William C Smith:

William (AKA: Bill) Cornelius Smith, he is the son of Edney Pendley and William C Smith. Bill came to Alabama either with his grandparents or to visit them and while he was here he met and married Lamiley Poe the daughter of George Poe and Judy Catherine Griffin. Now for some more confusion, George Poe was the son of Lamiley Pendley Poe and Asa Rossie Poe. George was one of the eldest children. He was already grown by the time Asa Rossie was born.

Bill traveled back and forth to Texas to visit family. One old story goes: Bill on one of his trips to visit his family in Texas was on the ferry crossing the Mississippi. A small boy accidentally fell into the deep waters of the Mississippi river. Bill was an excellent swimmer and he jumped in the water and saved the boys life.

My grandmother Julia Ellen Poe Honeycutt said that when she was very young Bill would come to the house and sit in one of the straight chairs in their home and that Granny Angeline told her that he was her Uncle Bill. For a long time we thought that Bill was another one of the children of Wesley and Sarah but then found out it apparently was just an honorary title.

Bill in the later years was visiting in Texas and died suddenly. His family remained in Alabama.

Notes for William C Smith:

William (AKA: Bill) Cornelius Smith, he is the son of Edney Pendley and William C Smith. Bill came to Alabama either with his grandparents or to visit them and while he was here he met and married Lamiley Poe the daughter of George Poe and Judy Catherine Griffin. Now for some more confusion, George Poe was the son of Lamiley Pendley Poe and Asa Rossie Poe. George was one of the eldest children. He was already grown by the time Asa Rossie was born.

Bill traveled back and forth to Texas to visit family. One old story goes: Bill on one of his trips to visit his family in Texas was on the ferry crossing the Mississippi. A small boy accidentally fell into the deep waters of the Mississippi river. Bill was an excellent swimmer and he jumped in the water and saved the boys life.

My grandmother Julia Ellen Poe Honeycutt said that when she was very young Bill would come to the house and sit in one of the straight chairs in their home and that Granny Angeline told her that he was her Uncle Bill. For a long time we thought that Bill was another one of the children of Wesley and Sarah but then found out it apparently was just an honorary title.

Bill in the later years was visiting in Texas and died suddenly. His family remained in Alabama.

Children are listed above under (38) William C Smith.

She married Bryant McDonald 27 Oct 1889 in Fayette County, Alabama. He was born 1869 in Mississippi, and died 14 Feb 1931 in Hammond, Tangipahoa Parish, Louisiana.

Notes for Eddy Catherine Fulton:

The following information was posted on rootsweb by: Phyllis Crochet Raines

Bryant Lenard/Lanier Aka Luther was married twice, His first wife Eddy also spelled as (Edie) had 22 children who were remembered by family members. Their were some mutiable births known of, 1 set of triptles who were born stillborn and 1 set of twins also born stillborn. Their were a set of twins girls Lettie and Hettie. They were the only known twins to have, had one to survive into her adulthood, Evelyn wasn't for sure which one did (Hettie or Lettie). The rest of the children were of single births. There were altogether 13 boys and 3 girls known to have lived to maturity. Edie was listed as wife of Leonard.

Eddy/Edie is found living in the home of her son Dudley in 1930. Eddy/Edie was known by the wife of her grandson Bera to be residing in Coaling Valley, Tuscaloosa County, Alabama well into her latter years. She is believed to have died in the same area of Tuscaloosa County, Alabama and would have been buried there.

Note:

Note:

Great Grandpa Bryant's second wife Irene (my G Grandmother) who liked to be called Rena, She worked for Eddy/Edie when she and Great Grandpa first met. They fell in love. The story from the children is that Irene being pregant with Bryants child and still residing with her husband and Bryant with his wife and all of them residing in the same area of Mississippi. The KKK did not approve. They being heavily involved with the Fulton family, they began chasing Great Grandpa Bryant. He and Irene decided to run off together. Great Grandpa Bryant moved with Irene by foot over to Roseland, Louisiana. They arrived just in time for the birth of their first son Benjamin Woodrow.

Note:

Note:

Great Grandpa Bryant and Irene were found in the Tangipahoa Parish, Louisiana 1920 census. I have not located a marriage record to know if they ever legally married. All of their children are believed to have been born in Roseland (even though census records show the first two to be born in Mississippi). Great Grandpa Bryant died in 1931 and was buried at New Beulah Cemetery in Baptiste, Louisiana.

Note:

Note:

His eldest granddaughter Evelyn who was born through Benjamin tells me, they (she and her mother Ida) have cared for the graves of our grandparents Bryant and Irene for many years. The graves are identified only through planks of wood made and placed by their daughter-in-law Mary Ida Vergie Mae BADON as markers. She hand made the markers herself using old head boards from wooden beds. She hand carved the names and dates. She made several of them for different family members buried in the area. With the carving and painting of the headboard/ markers it sometimes took her several months to make just one of them.

Notes for Eugene Roy Mann:

Roy was quite a story teller as was the custom of the time:

He told great stories, several about headless people, etc.

One of the stories he told was that his father or grandfather (I was never clear which one) road with the Jesse James gang. I don't know if the story was true or only one of the many stories that were told for entertainment.

I do know that every time he rode by a rock house in the Warrior area that he said that was one of the hide outs that Jesse used. He also pointed to a store in Oakman. He never varied from the story he told and he always pointed out the same hide outs.

Notes for James Edward Argent:

The following was posted on Gen Forum:

My wife's grandfather, William Argent and his 2 brothers, John and Charles, left England in 1881. William and John were born in Suffolk, Charles in Essex. Family lore has it that they left behind a sister. What I have found so far in my research, not substantiated, is that the parents names were William and Sarah, and the sister was Jane. William's parents were George Argent and Jane Rutter married in 1837, Wickhambrook. George's parents were Samuel Argent and Elizabeth Fisk, married 1772 in Cavendish. Anyone having any info that could substantiate or dispute this line, or anything at all? Additional info: All three brothers ended up in Alabama as coal Miners. Most of the Argent's from this line still live in the Birmingham or Walker County area of Alabama.
