Old Rosemont Cemetery Section 4 - 9

920 Military Road, Benton

History: The Old Rosemont Cemetery was formerly known as the Ransom Thompson Cemetery. His wife's grave was the first on the land. Next were: Avor Allen, Ham Allen, Ambrose Thompson and his wife who was Rachel Hockersmith. The land was later owned by W. J. Oliver who began laying off and selling lots. The first lot was sold in the 1840s. Mr. Oliver was the great grandfather of Letha Crabtree and Mary Henderson. The Northern section of the cemetery was owned by Mrs. Sena McNeil and it too was laid off and sold in lots.

The records of the cemetery, according to Mrs. Margaret Kelley Floyd, were stolen from the utility room where they were kept. As far as is known, this may well be the only record of the marked graves in the cemetery.

Cataloged by: Dorris and Bernard Barber, assisted by Mrs. Ann Wheat Bryan, Miss Brenda Ann Bryan, Mrs. Geneva Craig Gill, Mrs. Maurine Chambers, Mrs. Alma Nutt and Mrs. Norma Bush, June 5, 1977.

Two Large Concrete and Brick Crypts (unmarked)

This is believed to be the resting place of the bodies moved from the site of the C. W. Lewis stadium.

Those bodies are:

Hall

Lewis B.
No dates
Thursey A. (Wife of Lewis b.)
No dates
Their Children

There is no proof to this; just a statement to the fact that the bodies were placed in a concrete crypt now unmarked.
