Hannah was born 1780. Family tradition says that she was of Cherokee descent. She may have been the daughter of William or Henry Poe of Ashe County, and Matthias Poe of Ashe County may have been her brother.

Hannah and Peter Hart (Jr.) probably married just prior to 1800. They lived Ashe County, NC, according to the 1800, 1810, and 1820 censuses; Vermilion County, IL, in 1830; and in Putnam County, IL, 1832-1839. They went to what is now Mercer County, MO, in 1839; Peter died there in 1842.

Hannah later moved to Polk County, IA (1850 census) and then to Warren County, IA (1860 and 1870 censuses) and died there in 1871/72. She probably is buried in Linn Grove Cemetery

Hannah was the mother of between 11 and 13 children.

Hannah believed to have been b. ca 1784, poss in Chatham co and at the time of the writing of the Hart book it was believed she may have been a dtr of Wm. Poe.

A Wm Poe is on the on the 1790 census in CHatham CO, NC. Another Wm Poe is in Surry, NC which is apparently much closer to Ashe Co,

The part about her being indian is via "family lore". HER descendants did apply to be on the rolls or some such but were never accepted according to Julia (juliana@aol.com). Prior to this week, I did not know that bit of info>

Three years later Grayson was formed from Wythe and the Hart fam land was included in thei new co. where it remains today where it s southern boundary is the NC line. ashe co where on Peter Hart is found on the 1800 census adjoins Grayson CO to the suth just across the state line.
