Rains,

Information obtained on the Rains and related lines are from the following sources:

1] Roots Web World Connect Project: Ancestors of Deb Landauer
2] Vern Mynatt, a long time researcher in the Rains line, along with many others in this record.
3] Richard Riley, Riley and Allied families, Ancestry.com updated 2006-01-20

4] Teri Cadwallader, correlation of researchers information, along with research information to verify family lines, and correlate information.

Information from Varn Mynatt.

THE NAME RAINS LISTED IN THIS RECORD WAS CHANGED IN MOST FAMILIES TO RAINES

ABOUT THE END OF THE CIVIL WAR (1865) AND CONTINUED TO THIS DAY AS RAINES. A

FEW LINES OF DESCENT ARE STILL USING

THE ORIGINAL SPELLING OF RAINS. AT THIS TIME THE ANCESTORS IF ISHMAEL AND

HIS BROTHERS IS THOUGHT TO BE JOHN RAINS WHO MARRIED MARY _____? OR POSSIBLE A HENRY RAINS WHO MARRIED

AN UNKNOWN. EITHER ONE OF THESE WOULD HAVE BEEN BORN, WE THINK, IN CAROLINE COUNTY VA.

JOHN RAINS WILL WAS WRITTEN IN 1766 AND PROBATE WAS FEBRUARY OF 1767 AFTER HIS DEATH.

John Rains above died in Caroline County Virginia in 1767 and may be buried there.

This is Anthony Rains down.

please note, Aaron Rains Married to Nancy Poe [Anthony's Granddaughter] is unconnected to any Rains family, because I can not find the family he belongs with.. I also have many unconnected Rains lines, just to keep everyone sorted out.

Thank you for the wonderful conversation today, and the links. They will help out a lot..

Children of Elizabeth Rains and John Poe are:

13 i. Nancy B.3 Poe, born 23 May 1822 in North Carolina; died 30 Jun 1898 in Howard County, Missouri. She married (1) Aaron Rains 27 Apr 1845 in Indiana; born Abt. 1803 in North Carolina; died Bet. 1854 - 1856 in Vandalia, Illinois. She married (2) Henry Miller 22 Aug 1859 in Marion County, Indiana.; born 06 Feb 1805 in Lincoln County, North Carolina.; died 20 Jul 1891 in Howard County, Missouri..

Notes for Nancy B. Poe:

Nancy Poe was born in North Carolina on 5-22-1822. She was the daughter of John W. Poe and Elisabeth. Her Father moved with his family to Morgan County Indiana when Nancy was about 15 years old(1837).

Nancy married Aaron Rains in 1845, in Indiana. So many people were wanting to move west at this time that Aaron and Nancy moved to Pettis County Missouri. They were dissatisfied with the country, and with their four little daughters started back to Indiana.

Aaron was stricken with a fever and died with congestive chills, between 1854, and 1856. He was buried in Vandalia, Illinois. Nancy stayed there for about one year, then she and her four girls made their way back to Indiana.

Some time later she met Henry Miller. He was a widower who had already raised a large family. He and Nancy were married about 1858 or 1859. To this union two sons were born, and about the same time John Phillip Miller, Henry's eldest son, was married to Rebecca Jane Rains, who was the eldest daughter of Nancy and Aaron Rains.

They migrated to Missouri from Indiana in a wagon train of thirteen wagons in about 1880 it is believed.

Note:

He was an expert at graphing fruit trees. Carried peach twigs stuck in potatoes to keep them moist and alive on the trip from North Carolina to Indiana. He also brought apple, magnolia and other shrubs in a similar manner. Had peach apple and pear orchards in southern Indiana after the Civil War. Planted young apple trees in rows between peach trees. He hired teams and wagons to haul ripe peaches to Lebanon IN where he could get $3.00 a bushel after the Civil War. (This was considered a very good price). They would take three wagon loads at a time and the trip took nearly a week. They drove at night and his son Cana would sell the peaches during the day.

Possibly came from Germany, his children spoke only German in early childhood. He was know to have a (low boiling point) a hot temper. He had 15 children, but the writer cannot account for all of them. Possibly some died in early childhood or infancy.
