

Mrs. Aikman Honors Little Rock Guests

In honor of Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas Cobb of Little Rock, Ark., who are their houseguests, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Aikman, 200 East Sixteenth street, entertained a few of their friends at dinner and bridge Friday night in their home.

Large candelabra with orange candles centered the table and Thanksgiving suggestions were seen in the dinner decorations. Zennias and other fall flowers were placed about the rooms.

Seated at the table with the hosts and the honored guests, were Dr. and Mrs. Tom Lowry, Dr. and Mrs. Hugh Gilbert Jeter, Mr. and Mrs. Erie W. Sherman, Dr. and Mrs. Dick Lowry and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Armstrong.

Mrs. Aikman Honors Little Rock Guests

In honor of Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas Cobb of Little Rock, Ark., who are their houseguests, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Aikman, 200 East Sixteenth street, entertained a few of their friends at dinner and bridge Friday night in their home.

Large candelabra with orange candles centered the table and Thanksgiving suggestions were seen in the dinner decorations. Zennias and other fall flowers were placed about the rooms.

Seated at the table with the hosts and the honored guests, were Dr. and Mrs. Tom Lowry, Dr. and Mrs. Hugh Gilbert Jeter, Mr. and Mrs. Erie W. Sherman, Dr. and Mrs. Dick Lowry and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Armstrong.