

Birmingham Ala.
Mar. 28 - 1961

Dear Winfred,
We haven't heard from you in a long time. I hope you and your family are well.

I'm still busy on genealogy (Burr is getting more interested, I'm so glad I keep getting more data on most of my lines. I have some Poe data typed that I want to send you. I have a Fayette school teacher friend that married A.R. Callahan, a lawyer of Tuscaloosa. She had heard that I was doing a lot of work on genealogy. She wrote me ~~for~~ some information. We have been writing 2 letters a wk. to one another for past month. She says she has hit the jackpot. I feel the same about her.

She has been looking up records on Tuscaloosa Co. for me on my lines! She has sent me Census records on Hall, Poe and York families from Tuscaloosa Co. She found your John Poe.

April 10 - 1961

Here I am again about 13 days later I received your letter several days ago, we were glad to hear from you. But sorry you haven't been well, your other letters and the family group sheet on the John Poe family you sent me last yr. <sup>2</sup> has been so much help to me. I refer to them often.

Mary Livingston finally sent me her daughters name and address.

Mrs. C. R. Baldwin, 437 S. Rock Hill Webster Shows St Louis Mo.

I wrote this lady. she hasnt answered yet. But she will, if she is interested in genealogy or getting in the D, A, R, which her mother says she is very anxious to do.

I spent 2 days last week in Tuscaloosia searching Court house records, which they have "Books" of. Their marriage records begin in 1826

I found lots of interesting things. I hope to go back and do some more research. Mrs Callahan and I spent most of one afternoon searching the oldest cemetery in Tuscaloosia: Greenwood,

But we didnt find any poos, Nalls or Jenkins.
There could have been plenty of them buried there, so many of the monuments were so old they didnt have any sign of writing on them.
A lot of them have vaults of hand made brick

Bradley and Elizabeth poe Nall, had one child perimia who m. Judge Bedford Williams of Tuscaloosia the last time she married. he helped her rear her first husband (John Wilson the out law) great niece, Nina Foster, who married Joe Seasey. I called this Mrs. Nina F. Seasey before I left Tuscaloosia, she told me that Bradley and Elizabeth Nall were buried in Evergreen Cemetery. in Tuscaloosia, in the center of Cemetery with iron fence around the plot.

Mrs. Callahan says she will go and copy the inscriptions for me.

I had hoped I would find Major poe's grave in Tuscaloosa, since we had found out that the lone monument in the old poe cemetery at New Tomville, on the old Simon poe farm. Was Simon poe B. ~~1782~~ 1782 D. 1875:

I think I wrote you that the monument had been destroyed. Ruby poe McMillian, Signal Ohio, granddaughter of Oliver Perry and Mariah Hall poe sent me a copy of the inscription.

Please answer this question. Do you know if Bradley, Mariah, and Louisa Hall, were brothers and sisters? you know they all three M. John poe's children.

We know that Bradley was a younger brother of Martin Hall B. 1794. This Martin Hall M. Simon poe's daughter Mary (Polly) poe. Their oldest child was also Mariah Hall. <sup>B. 1824</sup> She M. Jacob Shepherd. <sup>B. 1813</sup> They were the parents of my mother in law Ruth Shepherd Sullivan. Let me know what you think about all this information in mailing you.

Lucille Burston and I send our love and best regards to you and your family and your mother. when Lucille and I speak of you we call you Winfred. so we want to be called Lucille and Ruby. she is busy teaching school

Sincerely
Ruby P. Sullivan
