Dear John,

I havent lost interest in the Family History but with three children, the store and so many other things it doesnt seem that I can find time to do anything. Last Sunday afternoon I was looking through your letters and have wondered since if you have any new information. I am making a list of questions and when you have time will appreciate your answering them.

Judy, our oldest daughter, is a Freshman at Univ. of Ark. in Fayetteville this year. She plans to be a Nurse which means 2 years in Fayetteville and then three years in Little Rock. She worked as a Nurses Aid this summer at our local hospital and likes the work.

Belfast is a small community between Benton and Sheridan. It is several blocks off the highway but the original town was on the highway. They plan to put up a historical marker there this fall. The Ark. Historical Commission will make up wording for front and on the back will be the names of all early settlers which will include Poe, Holiman, Hogue, Reynolds, Walters and others that ~~are~~ are our ancestors.

I am inclined to think that Simon Poe was a son or grandson of Maj. James Poe - Rev. War and that Calvin Poe who was father of Major James Poe, Conf. Army, was a brother of our Simon Poe. Proving this is something else.

Sincerely,

W.P. Walton
