The above James Poe was a son of James Poe
Revolutionary War Soldier.

The above James McMillian is buried in Greenwood Cemetery Tuscaloosa Ala
James McMillian was a brother of Simon Poe's wife (Avery)

Margret memilliam. They were children of Annon memilliam. I have a copy of Annon memilliam Will which is on file in Tuscaloosa dated 1823.

This Annon memilliam's sister Sara ^{B. 1769} married my g g g grandfather Emett yerby. Emett was B. 1762.

Annon's an Sarah's father would be my g g g g grandfather he is also Burns g g g g grandfather. Burns says after being married to me 41 yrs - he doesn't mean to start claiming kin with me.

Burns and I find we are related another way.

Burns and I find we are related another way.
This Emett and Sarah yerby had a daughter Elizabeth, that married Wm Shepherd in Anson Co. N.C.
Wm and Elizabeth were Burns' great grandparents.

(My Mother's maiden name was yerby)
The yerby, pov. memilliam, Shepherd, and Hall families were so mixed in N.C. and it got worse
after they settled in Ala.
