

Entertains at Bridge-Luncheon.

Beginning a series of parties which have been planned for Miss Esther Murray, who will leave soon to make her home in Monterey, Calif., Mrs. J. T. Cobb entertained Friday morning at her home on Denison street. A color motif of lavender and white was chosen by the hostess and sweetpeas and white roses were used in decoration. The game of bridge was enjoyed during the morning and two prizes were given for high score. Miss Murray was presented with a Niloak pottery vase. At the conclusion of the game a delightful luncheon was served, at which time a bouquet of lavender sweetpeas was presented to each guest. Among those who were invited to be with Miss Murray were Mrs. Roy Holland, Mrs. J. B. Hilzheim, Mrs. Paul Mahoney, Mrs. James Cook, Mrs. Harry W. Browning, Miss Alma Calhoun, Mrs. William Cramp, Mrs. Reuben P. Reed and Mrs. William E. Poe.

Entertain With Party.

Entertains at Bridge-Luncheon.

Beginning a series of parties which have been planned for Miss Esther Murray, who will leave soon to make her home in Monterey, Calif., Mrs. J. T. Cobb entertained Friday morning at her home on Denison street. A color motif of lavender and white was chosen by the hostess and sweetpeas and white roses were used in decoration. The game of bridge was enjoyed during the morning and two prizes were given for high score. Miss Murray was presented with a Niloak pottery vase. At the conclusion of the game a delightful luncheon was served, at which time a bouquet of lavender sweetpeas was presented to each guest. Among those who were invited to be with Miss Murray were Mrs. Roy Holland, Mrs. J. B. Hilzheim, Mrs. Paul Mahoney, Mrs. James Cook, Mrs. Harry W. Browning, Miss Alma Calhoun, Mrs. William Cramp, Mrs. Reuben P. Reed and Mrs. William E. Poe.

Entertain With Party.