1) Condolence letter from Trinity: this is the last place he worked. It no longer exists. Note the part about "many people wouldn't trust anyone else to fill their prescriptions."

2) CR and Sam Benson @ Pharmacy Convention. Sam is leading. Likely taken in Dallas. Grandmother found an undeveloped roll with one picture on it in his pocket when she was readying his suit to go to the cleaner's. She was really scared b/c she thought it might be a picture of him w/a mistress. Nonetheless, she had it developed w/o his knowledge & was relieved to find it was just a picture someone had snapped on the street and probably sold to him.

3) CR Benson, Pharmacist. Likely from the Trinity Directory. Obviously he was not practicing in 1977; Grandmother must have kept his license up like she kept up her brother's law license (no. 13).

4) CR Benson undated.
