

Members of the Junior Matrons' Study Club entertained ta tea Friday afternoon between the hours of 3 and 5 o'clock at the home of Mrs. B. A. Bennett, 2620 State street. The rooms were artistically decoated with roses and sweetpeas in the club colors of pink and white, interspersed with lighted tapers in silver holders. The cards were received at the door by little Misses Schmuck and Mitchell and Mrs. B. A. Bennett, Mrs. Paul Grier Wilson, Mrs. George Pease, Mrs. Ben Isgrig, Mrs. H. H. Schmuck and Mrs. Wade Scott received the guests. Presiding in the dining room were Mrs. M. E. Michell and Mrs. W. O. Poe, assisted by Mrs. G. I. Glass, Mrs. J. H. Collier, Mrs. William Kramp, Mrs. J. T. Cobb, Mrs. Frank Webber, Mrs. J. W. Shanks, Mrs. George Schoeneck, Mrs. G. T. Hyatt, Mrs. T. R. Osborne, Mrs. W. E. Dandridge, Mrs. F. R. Harrison and Mrs. Flowers. The serving table was centered with a bowl of pink and white sweetpeas, surrounded by pink tapers in silver holders. During the afternoon an entertaining program of music and readings was given. Mrs. Flora Bell Shepard gave the piano selection, "Rirst Arabesque," by Debussy, after which Mrs. Robert Richardson and Mrs. I. J. Steed sang the duet, "By the Waters of Minnetonka" and "Mighty Lak a Rose," with Mrs. R. E. Overman at the piano. Miss Mary Frances Clifford gave the piano selection, "Nocturne" in F minor by Chopin, and "Autumn," by McDowell. Little Misses Margaret Bealer and Mary Frances Jung were presented in a dance number, with accompaniment by Mrs. Bealer. Mrs. Joe Schmelzer sang "In the Land of the Sky Blue Water" and "Who Will Buy My Lavender," with Mrs. E. Hinshaw at the piano. The next number was a group of songs by Mrs. Weldon Crawford, "Awake, Dear Heart," by Bankroft, and "The Sweet of the Year," by Sauter. Mrs. Nathan Bright played accompaniments. Allen Aycock played a xylophone selection, "My Wild Irish Rose," accompanied at the piano by his mother, Mrs. Allen Aycock. Fred Schmutz was presented in a piano selection, "Minuet," by Paderewski, followed by a vocal selection by Mrs. Fred Harrison, with Mrs. R. E. Overman at the piano. Mrs. Fay Goodland played "Souvenir," by Dvorak, and Schumann's "Traumerie." Little Miss Mary Louise Miller was presented in a toe dance, with Mrs. Dorothy Donelson at the piano, and Mrs. Roy Rutherford gave a rading.