

Birmingham Ala.
May 4 - 1961.

Dear Winifred,

I hope you received the letter containing poe data. I sent you some time ago.

One of your poe Cousins Mrs. Billy poe Brown and I, spent this past Monday at the archives Dept Montgomery Ala. We sure did enjoy the day.

But we needed more time. We are both working on so many family names. We have more material on the poes and some other families, than they have down there - We are planning on sending them copies of what we have.

I found the following in one of Mrs.
Lawrds book. Buried in Ever Green Cemetery Tuscaloosa Ala.

Bradley Nall B. Nov. 1804. D. Feb. 1864 age 57.

Elizabeth Nall B. Mar. ~~1814~~ 1814 D. Jan 1899 age 84.

My husband and I are planning on going to Fayette Ala tomorrow. He will fish. I'll visit and work on genealogy. I'm planning on my trip to N.C. in about six wks. We hope to visit you people too. Some time this summer - I'm anxious to know what you think about the poe material
I sent you. Hope you are O.K. by now

Sincerely
Ruby P. Sullivan,

(Over)

We finally found a copy of the inscription from the only monument in the old Poe country on the Simon Poe farm at Newtomble -

Simon Poe Born 1782. Died 1875.

So Major James must have been buried in Tuscaloosa, like Mrs. Mary Livingston said.
I can't get any more information out of her.
her daughter has never answered my letter.

I copied the letter of Harry T. Poe of Greenville S.C. which you wrote me about. I wonder where he got his information on Major James Poe.
