

Bridge-Tea Honors Little Rock Guest

Pretty bridge-tea of Wednesday was the one at which Mrs. Hugh Gilbert Jeter, 1216 East Seventeenth street, was hostess in compliment to Mrs. John Thomas Cobb of Little Rock, Ark., the houseguest of Mrs. Claude Aikman, 200 East Sixteenth street.

House was decorated with many bowls of fall flowers with cosmos and marigolds predominating.

Guests were Mrs. William J. Armstrong, Mrs. Leslie E. Salter, Mrs. Edwin A. Davis, Mrs. C. B. Tribbey, Mrs. Vernon B. Gresham, Mrs. Frank C. Beasley, Mrs. W. M. Jurgensen, Mrs. Phil M. McNeill, Mrs. F. C. DeCordova, Mrs. Erie W. Sherman and Mrs. Aikman.

Favors were awarded to Mrs. Sherman, Mrs. Salter and to Mrs. Cobb, after which Mrs. Jeter was assisted in serving tea by Mrs. Aikman.

Bridge-Tea Honors Little Rock Guest

Pretty bridge-tea of Wednesday was the one at which Mrs. Hugh Gilbert Jeter, 1216 East Seventeenth street, was hostess in compliment to Mrs. John Thomas Cobb of Little Rock, Ark., the houseguest of Mrs. Claude Aikman, 200 East Sixteenth street.

House was decorated with many bowls of fall flowers with cosmos and marigolds predominating.

Guests were Mrs. William J. Armstrong, Mrs. Leslie E. Salter, Mrs. Edwin A. Davis, Mrs. C. B. Tribbey, Mrs. Vernon B. Gresham, Mrs. Frank C. Beasley, Mrs. W. M. Jurgensen, Mrs. Phil M. McNeill, Mrs. F. C. DeCordova, Mrs. Erie W. Sherman and Mrs. Aikman.

Favors were awarded to Mrs. Sherman, Mrs. Salter and to Mrs. Cobb, after which Mrs. Jeter was assisted in serving tea by Mrs. Aikman.